SECTION 4. MEMBERSHIP SCREENING:

All membership applications shall include the signature of the sponsoring member prior to review by the Membership Screening Committee.

Applicants must submit samples of one half of required published or produced works or a combination thereof for the membership category, or categories selected, with their application.

All applicants for NOWA membership, except supporting members, shall within 60 days be reviewed by the NOWA Membership Screening and Ethics Committee for eligibility, as set forth in By Laws, Article 1, Section 3. The committee may by majority vote approve or deny any application, subject to challenge, such challenge to be resolved, by secret ballot, by the Board of Directors. The Secretary/Treasurer shall approve all supporting member applications.

The applicant, upon payment of all dues and initiation fees, will be recognised as a Proposed Member, with full rights of membership excluding voting rights, for the interim between application and committee approval. If the application is denied, all prepaid fees and dues shall be refunded at the time of notification.

Committee review procedures shall be applied to all first-time applicants and former members whose memberships have lapsed for two years or more. The names of proposed first-time or reinstated lapsed members shall be announced to the membership in the first available newsletter for possible comment.

Membership requirement audit and review procedures may be applied to any current member at the discretion of the NOWA Membership Screening and Ethics Committee or at the mandate of the NOWA Board of Directors.

The Membership Screening Committee has wide latitude and will consider applicants working in several related fields or whose works require unusual effort. Full-time professional communicators whose work include outdoor subjects, but does not meet the minimum requirements for stated membership categories may be given special consideration, at the discretion of the Membership Screening Committee and the Board of Directors.

Dues and Initiation Fees

SECTION 1. INITIATION FEES: With the exception of supporting members, the initiation fee applies to all classes of membership. Any member who loses or drops her or his membership because of failure to meet membership requirements, failure to pay dues, by choice, or for any other reason, and who later wants to rejoin NOWA, must pay a new initiation fee to rejoin.

SECTION 2. DUES: Dues run from January 1 through December 31. For the first year of membership, members of all classifications who join before July 1st pay the full yearly dues rate, those joining after July 1st pay one-half the yearly dues rate. Any member who has not paid the yearly dues before January 15th or dues and late payment by February 15th of that year will be dropped from membership as of that date. Late penalty will apply to all reinstatements.

SECTION 3. RATES: The Board of Directors sets the amounts for initiation fees and dues, which are payable in U.S. funds. Dues for a "Retired" classification member shall be fifty percent of the "Regular" member classification rate. Effective September 1992, dues and initiation fees are as follows:

Initiation fee: $10.00 (Supporting members exempt) Late Payment after December 31: $10.00 (Supporting members exempt)

Dues:	Active Member:	$50.00
Dues:	Active Retired Member:	$25.00
Dues:	Associate Member:	$50.00
Dues:	Apprentice Member:	$25.00
Dues:	Student Member:	$20.00
Dues:	Supporting Member:	$100.00
